

ASP Partnership Covenant

Group Name:

Group Number:

As the Staff of Appalachia Service Project, we agree:

- To do everything we can to facilitate a meaningful service opportunity in a spiritual, inclusive, and respectful environment.
- To manage construction projects, provide tools and supplies, and respectfully collaborate with group leaders and volunteers through prompt communication and clear organization.
- To facilitate quality evening programs and activities so volunteers have opportunities to learn about the region and explore their faith.
- To embody ASP’s Guiding Principles and be a role model for volunteers in representing ASP well within the community.

As a Volunteer with Appalachia Service Project, I agree:

- To familiarize myself with and abide by ASP’s Expectations, Rules and Regulations, Anti-Harassment Policy, and dress code.
- To work safely and report to the staff any behavior or situation that I deem unsafe.
- To be open-minded and work to build meaningful and inclusive relationships with the homeowners I serve and the volunteers and staff members that I interact with at the center.
- To interact appropriately with community members and other groups at my center, understanding that I am representing Appalachia Service Project.
- To utilize resources in a stewardly fashion.
- To maintain a clean facility by completing the chores assigned to my group.

As an Adult Group Leader, I further agree:

- To be responsible for the whereabouts and well-being of my youth volunteers and to help enforce the expectations and rules set by ASP and the Staff, including quiet time and lights out.
- To ensure that all volunteers are present for Morning Devotions, Evening Gatherings, and all other scheduled events.
- To constructively collaborate with the Staff to complete the project specifically designated to my group.
- To communicate promptly and respectfully any concerns or praises I have about our volunteer experience.
- To foster an inclusive and respectful environment that ensures a quality experience for all volunteers, staff members, and homeowners.

All participants please sign below. Give this form to ASP Staff upon arrival at your center.
